Performance Omnibus by the project group Etnobanda is on the surface a linearization (putting in sequence) of the memory artefacts, that we generate every time anew. Associatevely - as human memory works - we put them in line, more or less in random (so: nonlinear and even in parallel), but again only in sequence. In this manner photographs, movies and texts interweave - the identity moments of members of the group - and finally crystallize into an entity - a story. Story is like a rationalization - always (in the end) - just another story is born. Or: four and the fifth. The fifth is "rehearsal in Sloga" (a joke with words and meanings: Sloga is a former porn film, where the event was first supposed to take place - the word meaning Unity...). All the five stories are improvised - created in parallel and at first still escaping the structure. "Fill rouge" are the sound and human voice, that can exist in parallel / in time much easier than the 'heavier / harder' visualised story. The time limits (the defined start and end) glue them together into a finite entity. The finite (definite) time is the moment (as element of time; and force) that demands that a story always emerges.

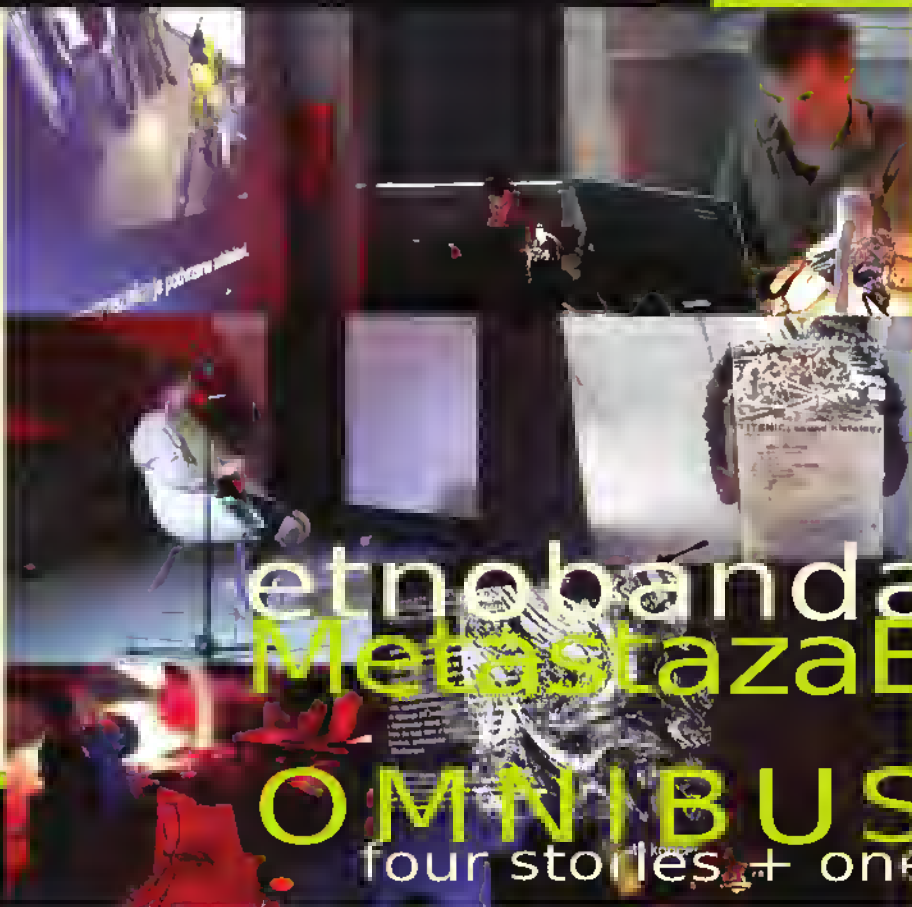

Predstava Omnibus skupine Etnobanda je na površini linearizacija (vmešanje v zaporedje) artefaktov spomina, ki jih generiramo vsakič na novo. Asociativno - kot delujo človeški spomin - jih nizamo, bolj ali manj naključno (torej: acilnearno in celo vzporedno), pa na koncu vseeno spet le v zaporedje. Tako se zvrstijo in med sabo prepletajo fotografije, filmi in besedila - ideativni momenti članov in članice skupine - ter neoglino sestavijo v celoto - zgodbo. Zgodbo je kot racionalizacija - vedno se (na koncu) rodi le še ena zgodba. Oziroma štiri in peto. Peto je "vaja v Slogi" (nastop naj bi namreč bil v nekondjem kinu Sloga). Vseh pet zgodb je improviziranih - vzporedno nastajajočih in prvi trenutek še neulovljivih. Osnovna nit je zvok in človeški glas, ki zaradi lahkosti bivajo veliko bolj vzporedno/sočasno, kot pa to pritiče vizualizirani zgodbi. Omejen čas (definirana začetek in konec) jih vendorle zlepi skapaj v celost - končnost. Končnost - zaključnost je torej trenutek (moment - navor), ki zahteva da zgodbo na vsok način nastane.
